FIRST READING – Exodus 20:8-11

<sup>8</sup> Remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy. <sup>9</sup> Six days you shall labor and do all your work. <sup>10</sup> But the seventh day is a Sabbath to the Lord your God; you shall not do any work—you, your son or your daughter, your male or female slave, your livestock, or the alien resident in your towns. <sup>11</sup> For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but rested the seventh day; therefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day and consecrated it.

Word of God, word of life.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 92

A Psalm. A Song for the Sabbath Day.

1 It is good to give thanks to the Lord,
to sing praises to your name, O Most High,

2 to declare your steadfast love in the morning
and your faithfulness by night,

3 to the music of the lute and the harp,
to the melody of the lyre.

4 For you, O Lord, have made me glad by your work;
at the works of your hands I sing for joy.

Acclamation

The assembly stands.

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

The image shows two staves of musical notation in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is simple and repetitive, with the lyrics 'Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.' written below each staff. The first staff ends with a double bar line, and the second staff continues the melody.

The Holy Gospel according to Mark the second chapter.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Second Reading: Mark 2:23-28

<sup>23</sup> One Sabbath he was going through the grain fields, and as they made their way his disciples began to pluck heads of grain. <sup>24</sup> The Pharisees said to him, “Look, why are they doing what is not lawful on the Sabbath?” <sup>25</sup> And he said to them, “Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry and in need of food, <sup>26</sup> how he entered the house of God when Abiathar was high priest and ate the bread of the Presence, which it is not lawful for any but the priests to eat, and he gave some to his companions?” <sup>27</sup> Then he said to them, “The Sabbath was made for humankind and not humankind for the Sabbath, <sup>28</sup> so the Son of Man is lord even of the Sabbath.”

The gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Catechism

[God commanded that we are] to refrain from hard work and to rest, so that both human beings and animals might be refreshed and not be exhausted by constant labor. We observe [the Sabbath] so that people will have time and opportunity on such days of rest, which otherwise would not be available, to attend worship services, that is, so that they may assemble to hear and discuss God’s Word and then to offer praise, song, and prayer to God. (Martin Luther’s Large Catechism)

Adult and youth helpers are needed for Vacation Bible School. Contact the church office to let us know we can count on you!

The noisy offering will be collected next week. In response to Bishop Donald Kreiss's request for aide, it will go to our companion synod, the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jordan and the Holy Land, (ELCJHL). Presiding Bishop Eaton, Bishop Kreiss and two other ELCA colleagues had a trip planned to visit Bishop Azar and companions in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jordan and the Holy Land (the ELCJHL). Their flights were cancelled, and the trip was not possible.

A zoom meeting was scheduled with Bishop Azar. Our bishops prayed with him and his staff and heard from them what support is most useful and needed during this terrible time for our Christian brothers and sisters and the communities in which they live and serve. In addition to our prayers, there is an enormous need for funding to support the critical ministries sponsored by the ELCJHL, which includes schools, hospitals, community social services and more. Your donations may be included in the noisy offering or sent directly to the Synod office at: Southeast Michigan Synod 4800 Woodward Ave. Detroit, MI 48201. Please do not send cash and do not try to send money overseas.

Bishop Kreiss thanks us in advance for our love of our companions and our generosity in giving. He reminds us of St. Paul's writing in 2nd Corinthians 9:10-11 "You will be enriched in every way for your great generosity, which produces thanksgiving to God through us; for the rendering of this ministry not only supplies the needs of the saints but also overflows with many thanksgivings to God.”
