PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray.

Lord God, whom no dwelling can contain, In this house we gather to call upon your mercy, to thank you for your goodness, and to praise your name forever. Hear the pleas that come to you from all corners of the earth, that our words may not fall upon deaf ears, but that you, our Creator, will respond with kindness, compassion, and grace, in the name of the one whose kingdom extends far beyond these walls, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. The assembly is seated.

FIRST READING – 1 Kings 5:1-5; 8:27-30, 41-43

¹ Now King Hiram of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon, when he heard that they had anointed him king in place of his father; for Hiram had always been a friend to David. ² Solomon sent word to Hiram, saying, ³ You know that my father David could not build a house for the name of the LORD his God because of the warfare with which his enemies surrounded him, until the LORD put them under the soles of his feet. ⁴ But now the LORD my God has given me rest on every side; there is neither adversary nor misfortune. ⁵ So I intend to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD said to my father David, 'Your son, whom I will set on your throne in your place, shall build the house for my name.'

²⁷ But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Even heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain you, much less this house that I have built! ²⁸ Regard your servant's prayer and his plea, O LORD my God, heeding the cry and the prayer that your servant prays to you today; ²⁹ that your eyes may be open night and day toward this house, the place of which you said, 'My name shall be there,' that you may heed the prayer that your servant prays toward this place. ³⁰ Hear the plea of your servant and of your people Israel when they pray toward this place; O hear in heaven your dwelling place; heed and forgive.

⁴¹ Likewise when a foreigner, who is not of your people Israel, comes from a distant land because of your name ⁴²— for they shall hear of your great name, your mighty hand, and your outstretched arm — when a foreigner comes and prays toward this house, ⁴³ then hear in heaven your dwelling place, and do according to all that the foreigner calls to you, so that all the peoples of the earth may know your name and fear you, as do your people Israel, and so that they may know that your name has been invoked on this house that I have built.

Word of God, word of life. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSIVE READING: Psalm 126

¹ When the Lord restored the for- | tunes of Zion,
then were we like | those who dream.

² Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with | shouts of joy.

Then they said among the nations, "The Lord has done great | things for them."

³ The Lord has done great | things for us,
and we are | glad indeed.

4Restore our for- | tunes, O Lord,
like the watercourses | of the Negeb.

5Those who | sowed with tears
will reap with | songs of joy.

6Those who go out weeping, carry- | ing the seed,
will come again with joy, shoulder- | ing their sheaves.

Acclamation

The assembly stands.

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.
Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

The image shows two staves of musical notation in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is simple and repetitive, with lyrics 'Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.' written below each staff. The first staff ends with a double bar line, and the second staff continues the melody and lyrics.

The Holy Gospel according to Luke the nineteenth chapter.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Gospel Reading: Luke 19:45-46

⁴⁵Then he entered the temple and began to drive out those who were selling things there; ⁴⁶and he said, "It is written, 'My house shall be a house of prayer'; but you have made it a den of robbers."

The gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

A letter of thanks to my Prince of Peace family: I want to thank everyone for all the prayers and cards for my wife, Jan. I would like to express my appreciation to the women of the church for the wonderful meal that was served after the funeral. It was absolutely delicious, and the care and love you put into everything made the day a little easier for our family. And of course, many thanks to Pastor Aaron who helped Jan and I through this. We are so blessed to have him as our pastor. Jan was the love of my life. I would love to spend another 60 years with her all over again. I pray to be together with her again someday. With sincerest thanks, Bob Winkelman
