For the Fruit of All Creation

1 For the fruit of all cre - a - tion, thanks be to God.
2 In the just re - ward of la - bor, God's will is done.
3 For the har - vests of the Spir - it, thanks be to God.

For these gifts to ev - 'ry na - tion, thanks be to God.
In the help we give our neigh - bor, God's will is done.
For the good we all in - her - it, thanks be to God.

For the plow - ing, sow - ing, reap - ing, si - lent growth while we are sleep - ing,
In our world - wide task of car - ing for the hun - gry and de - spair - ing,
For the won - ders that as - tound us, for the truths that still con - found us, fu - ture needs in earth's safe - keep - ing, thanks be to God.

in the har - vests we are shar - ing, God's will is done.
most of all, that love has found us, thanks be to God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray.

God of the seas, sky, and land, When Jonah turned to run from you, you showed him that nothing and no one could hide from your presence. You are in all things, and you love all things. Show us the gift of your presence, and help us to carry your word of compassion and grace to all the world, in the name of the one who carried out your love flawlessly, Jesus Christ our redeemer. Amen.

Amen.

The assembly is seated.

Children's Bible Story

Children's Bible Story Song

The musical score is written in 4/4 time with a key signature of one flat (Bb). It consists of ten staves of music. The lyrics are written below the notes, with chord symbols (C7, F, Gm, Dm, C, Bb, C9, A7) placed above the notes. The lyrics are: "How love - ly is the one who brings glad - tid - ings of good cheer, an - nounc - ing peace, God's sav - ing grace, for all the world to hear. How won - der - ful the joy - ous news of an - gels in the sky. "Peace on the earth, good - will to all, glad - tid - ings far and nigh. Lift up your voice and sing for joy! No long - er live in fear. The Sav - ior of the world has come to dwell a - mong us here."

Veterans Day Litany for Worship

Lord God, thank you for the men and women serving and who have served in our military. Thank you for the sacrifices they made to protect our freedoms: the freedom to speak, the freedom to vote, the freedom to learn, the freedom to worship.

Give us discipline to keep from wasting our freedom on selfishness, but to use our liberty as an opportunity to serve each other with love. (Galatians 5:13)

Compassionate God, heal the service men and women physically, mentally, and emotionally injured by conflict. Embrace them in your deep and lasting peace.

Praise to you, O Lord, for you heal the broken, body and soul, and bind up the wounded. (Psalm 147:1, 3)

Loving God, comfort all who suffer the miseries of war: people in their own land, service members, their families at home and the people who attend to all the various consequences of combat.

Release us from bitterness and sorrow so we may work together to rebuild relationships and heal everyone affected. Forgive us as we forgive others. (Luke 11:4)

Almighty God, protect those serving away from family and friends, not knowing when they will return. Give them strength to face the perils they may be put in. Give them the ability and integrity to do their jobs with honor. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for another. (John 15:13)

We ask all these things through our Savior, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FIRST READING – Jonah 1:1-17; 3:1-10; 4:1-11

<sup>1</sup>Now the word of the LORD came to Jonah son of Amittai, saying, <sup>2</sup>Go at once to Nineveh, that great city, and cry out against it; for their wickedness has come up before me. <sup>3</sup>But Jonah set out to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. He went down to Joppa and found a ship going to Tarshish; so he paid his fare and went on board, to go with them to Tarshish, away from the presence of the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>But the LORD hurled a great wind upon the sea, and such a mighty storm came upon the sea that the ship threatened to break up. <sup>5</sup>Then the mariners were afraid, and each cried to his god. They threw the cargo that was in the ship into the sea, to lighten it for them. Jonah, meanwhile, had gone down into the hold of the ship and had lain down, and was fast asleep. <sup>6</sup>The captain came and said to him, "What are you doing sound asleep? Get up, call on your god! Perhaps the god will spare us a thought so that we do not perish."

<sup>7</sup>The sailors said to one another, "Come, let us cast lots, so that we may know on whose account this calamity has come upon us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah. <sup>8</sup>Then they said to him, "Tell us why this calamity has come upon us. What is your occupation? Where do you come from? What is your country? And of what people are you?" <sup>9</sup>I am a Hebrew, he replied. "I worship the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land." <sup>10</sup>Then the men were even more afraid, and said to him, "What is this that you have done!" For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them so.

<sup>11</sup>Then they said to him, "What shall we do to you, that the sea may quiet down for us?" For the sea was growing more and more tempestuous. <sup>12</sup>He said to them, "Pick me up and throw me into the sea; then the sea will quiet down for you; for I know it is because of me that this great storm has come upon you." <sup>13</sup>Nevertheless the men rowed hard to bring the ship back to land, but they could not, for the sea grew more and more stormy against them. <sup>14</sup>Then they cried out to the LORD, "Please, O LORD, we pray, do not let us perish on account of this man's life. Do not make us guilty of innocent blood; for you, O LORD, have done as it pleased you." <sup>15</sup>So they picked Jonah up and threw him into the sea; and the sea ceased from its raging. <sup>16</sup>Then the men feared the LORD even more, and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made vows.

<sup>17</sup> But the LORD provided a large fish to swallow up Jonah; and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

<sup>1</sup>The word of the LORD came to Jonah a second time, saying, <sup>2</sup>Get up, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you. <sup>3</sup>So Jonah set out and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly large city, a three days' walk across. <sup>4</sup>Jonah began to go into the city, going a day's walk. And he cried out, "Forty days more, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!" <sup>5</sup>And the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and everyone, great and small, put on sackcloth.

<sup>6</sup>When the news reached the king of Nineveh, he rose from his throne, removed his robe, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. <sup>7</sup>Then he had a proclamation made in Nineveh: "By the decree of the king and his nobles: No human being or animal, no herd or flock, shall taste anything. They shall not feed, nor shall they drink water. <sup>8</sup>Human beings and animals shall be covered with sackcloth, and they shall cry mightily to God. All shall turn from their evil ways and from the violence that is in their hands. <sup>9</sup>Who knows? God may relent and change his mind; he may turn from his fierce anger, so that we do not perish."

<sup>10</sup>When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it.

<sup>1</sup>But this was very displeasing to Jonah, and he became angry. <sup>2</sup>He prayed to the LORD and said, "O LORD! Is not this what I said while I was still in my own country? That is why I fled to Tarshish at the beginning; for I knew that you are a gracious God and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, and ready to relent from punishing. <sup>3</sup>And now, O LORD, please take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live." <sup>4</sup>And the LORD said, "Is it right for you to be angry?" <sup>5</sup>Then Jonah went out of the city and sat down east of the city, and made a booth for himself there. He sat under it in the shade, waiting to see what would become of the city. <sup>6</sup>The Lord GOD appointed a bush, and made it come up over Jonah, to give shade over his head, to save him from his discomfort; so Jonah was very happy about the bush. <sup>7</sup>But when dawn came up the next day, God appointed a worm that attacked the bush, so that it withered. <sup>8</sup>When the sun rose, God prepared a sultry east wind, and the sun beat down on the head of Jonah so that he was faint and asked that he might die. He said, "It is better for me to die than to live."

<sup>9</sup>But God said to Jonah, "Is it right for you to be angry about the bush?" And he said, "Yes, angry enough to die." <sup>10</sup>Then the LORD said, "You are concerned about the bush, for which you did not labor and which you did not grow; it came into being in a night and perished in a night. <sup>11</sup>And should I not be concerned about Nineveh, that great city, in which there are more than a hundred and twenty thousand persons who do not know their right hand from their left, and also many animals?"

Word of God, word of life. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSIVE READING: : Psalm 146

1 Hal- | lelujah!

Praise the Lord, | O my soul!

2 I will praise the Lord as long | as I live;

I will sing praises to my God while I | have my being.

3 Put not your | trust in rulers,

in mortals in whom there | is no help.

4 When they breathe their last, they re- | turn to earth,

and in that day | their thoughts perish.

5 Happy are they who have the God of Jacob | for their help,

whose hope is in the | Lord their God;

6 who made heaven and earth, the seas, and all that | is in them;
who keeps promis- | es forever;

7 who gives justice to those who are oppressed, and food to | those who hunger.

The Lord sets the | captive free.

8 The Lord opens the eyes of the blind; the Lord lifts up those who | are bowed down;
the Lord | loves the righteous.

9 The Lord cares | for the stranger;
the Lord sustains the orphan and widow, but frustrates the way | of the wicked.

10 The Lord shall | reign forever,
your God, O Zion, throughout all generations. | Hallelujah!

Acclamation

The assembly stands.

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.
Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

The image shows two staves of musical notation in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is simple and repetitive, consisting of quarter and eighth notes. The lyrics 'Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.' are written below the notes. The first staff ends with a double bar line, and the second staff continues the melody and lyrics.

The Holy Gospel according to Luke the twenty second chapter.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Gospel Reading: Luke 18:13

<sup>13</sup>But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!'

The gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

SERMON

There's a Wideness in God's Mercy

1 There's a wide-ness in God's mer - cy, like the wide-ness of the sea;
2 There is wel - come for the sin - ner, and a prom - ised grace made good;
3 For the love of God is broad - er than the mea - sures of our mind;
4 'Tis not all we owe to Je - sus; it is some - thing more than all:

there's a kind - ness in God's jus - tice which is more than lib - er - ty.
there is mer - cy with the Sav - ior; there is heal - ing in his blood.
and the heart of the E - ter - nal is most won - der - ful - ly kind.
great - er good be - cause of e - vil, larg - er mer - cy through the fall.

There is no place where earth's sor - rows are more felt than up in heav'n.
There is grace e - nough for thou - sands of new worlds as great as this;
But we make this love too nar - row by false lim - its of our own;
Make our love, O God, more faith - ful; let us take you at your word,

There is no place where earth's fail - ings have such kind - ly judg - ment giv'n.
there is room for fresh cre - a - tions in that up - per home of bliss.
and we mag - ni - fy its strict - ness with a zeal God will not own.
and our lives will be thanks - giv - ing for the good - ness of the Lord.

Baptism

PRESENTATION

People of God, do you promise to support Colt and pray for him in his new life in Christ?

We do.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

The presiding minister addresses candidates, parents, sponsors, and the assembly.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church, the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.

THANKSGIVING AT THE FONT

The Lord be with you.

This month's Noisy Offering will go to Sleep in Heavenly Peace.

Sleep in Heavenly Peace is an organization that builds and delivers beds to children in need of a bed and a safe place to sleep.

At SHP, they fully believe that a bed is a basic need for the proper physical, emotional, and mental support that a child needs. When it was brought to their attention that the need for beds went far beyond their own neighborhoods, they stepped up and took initiative to form They are a national organization with local chapters, including Monroe, MI.

Sleep in Heavenly Peace is where it is today because countless individuals asked the question, "What can I do?" The answer is, there are many ways to get involved! From volunteering your time and energy on a Build Day, to making a donation to your local Chapter, to sponsoring a local build day... there are countless ways you can help

You can also donate new twin size sheets, pillows, and bedding items to our chapter. Visit <https://shpbeds.org> or call 844-432-2337 x 5601

Our congregation has the unique opportunity to participate in a national study of worship attenders. The Study is being conducted by Fatih Communities Today (FACT), a research partner of the ELCA.

Since 2000, FACT has conducted research that provides religious leaders of all traditions with critical information about the changing nature of congregational life and how to respond effectively.

Anyone 18 or older who is a regular participant can complete the survey. It should take between 12 to 15 minutes. To take the survey please go to the link below.
